Carroll

JAMES CHRISTIAN BOLANDER

Joseph Christian Bolander was born in Denmark on April 10, 1877. The family joined the Church, and when James was 10 years old the family came to Utah. Work was hard to get and the family went in different directions, James to southern Utah, finding employment there. He went on a mission to Samoa for three and one-half years. On his return to southern Utah he later married Eleanor Carroll on December 13, 1905, in the St. George Temple.

Eleanor Carroll was born in Heber City on January 22, 1875. When a young girl the family moved to Orderville, Utah, to join the United Order. After the order dissolved the family moved to a ranch south of town and there the children grew up. They spent all their married life in Orderville. To them were born five boys: Joseph Christian Bolander, Giles Huskinson Bolander, Reed Carroll Bolander; Edward Bolander, who only lived two weeks, and William Carroll Bolander.

James Christian Bolander died on May 30, 1946, at Orderville, and Eleanor Carroll Bolander died March 28, 1957, in Cedar City, Utah. 516

C. W. CARROLL

C. W. Carroll was born October 7, 1859, at Provo, Utah. He married Amelia Snyder on December 12, 1879. They met in Irderville in 1877. He engaged in farming, saw milling and merchandising in Orderville until he moved to Provo in 1911. He worked at the State Hospital for 10 years and served as a legislator. Seven children were born to Charles and Amelia: Dr. W.

C. W. CARROLL

C. W. Carroll was born October 7, 1859, at Provo, Utah. He married Amelia Snyder on December 12, 1879. They met in Irderville in 1877. He engaged in farming, saw milling and merchandising in Orderville until he moved to Provo in 1911. He worked at the State Hospital for 10 years and served as a legislator. Seven children were born to Charles and Amelia: Dr. W.

Ernest, Dr. Joseph S., Maurine (Mrs. C. H.) Harrison. The eldest son, Dr Charles Hardy, died in 1925. Jennie passed away when she was 18 years old, and Stanley at the age of 14.

Ernest and Joseph served in World War I and Charles W. was awarded a medal for patriotic service in the Liberty bond drives.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll moved to Palo Alto in 1942. Mrs. Carroll died there in 1943. Mr. Carroll moved to Stockton about two years before his death there on December 5, 1959.

Amelia Snyder Carroll was born in Salt Lake City on April 26, 1863, the daughter of Susan and Samuel Snyder.

C. W. CARROLL

C. W. Carroll was born October 7, 1859, at Provo, Utah. He married Amelia Snyder on December 12, 1879. They met in Irderville in 1877. He engaged in farming, saw milling and merchandising in Orderville until he moved to Provo in 1911. He worked at the State Hospital for 10 years and served as a legislator. Seven children were born to Charles and Amelia: Dr. W.

513

Ernest, Dr. Joseph S., Maurine (Mrs. C. H.) Harrison. The eldest son, Dr Charles Hardy, died in 1925. Jennie passed away when she was 18 years old, and Stanley at the age of 14.

Ernest and Joseph served in World War I and Charles W. was awarded a medal for patriotic service in the Liberty bond drives.

Mr. and Mrs. Carroll moved to Palo Alto in 1942. Mrs. Carroll died there in 1943. Mr. Carroll moved to Stockton about two years before his death there on December 5, 1959.

Amelia Snyder Carroll was born in Salt Lake City on April 26, 1863, the daughter of Susan and Samuel Snyder.